

Index

- after-school care, 30
- age
 - attitude toward rewards of parenthood
 - by, 82
 - by ability to speak English, 56, 66
 - of children in households, 8–9, 12–15
 - of householders, 10, 12, 14, 20–21
 - population by, 57–59, 83–99
- American Indian public school students by state, 73–74
- Asian
 - age of children in households, 13, 15
 - by state, 69–74, 83–99
 - children in day care, 29
 - college aspirations for children, 81
 - family income, 33, 37
 - households with children, 3, 5
 - living arrangements of children, 49, 51
 - number of children in households, 7, 11
 - population, 54, 58–59, 69–72, 83–99
 - public school students, 73–74
- attitudes
 - of fathers, 77, 79–80
 - toward childrearing, 18
 - toward children's standard of living, 19
 - toward rewards of parenthood, 78, 82
 - toward public schools, 9
 - toward working women, 17
- Baby Boom, 16–21, 22
- bilingual, 56, 66
- black
 - age of children in households, 13, 15
 - attitude toward childrearing, 19
 - attitude toward rewards of parenthood, 82
 - by state, 69–74, 83–99
 - children in day care, 29
 - college aspirations for children, 81
 - family income, 33, 37
 - households with children, 3, 5
 - living arrangements of children, 49–51
 - number of children in households, 7, 9, 11
 - population, 54, 58–59, 69–72, 83–99
 - public school students, 73–74
 - spending, 55, 60–62
- childrearing, attitude toward, 18
- college, parental aspirations for, 78
- day care, 24, 29–30
- educational attainment
 - attitude toward rewards of parenthood
 - by, 82
 - college aspirations by, 81
 - day care use by, 29
- employment status
 - day care use by, 29
 - of mothers, 24, 28
 - of parents, 23, 27
- English, ability to speak, 56, 66
- fathers. See Men.
- female-headed families
 - by age, 20–21
 - by generation, 22
 - children living in, 48–51
 - employment status, 23, 27
 - historical trend, 4
 - income of, 32, 35–36
- Generation X, 16–21, 22
- grandchildren
 - living with grandparents, 52
 - percent of people with, 9
- Hispanic
 - age of children in households, 13, 15
 - attitude toward childrearing, 19
 - attitude toward rewards of parenthood, 82
 - by state, 69–74, 83–99
 - children in day care, 29
 - college aspirations for children, 81
 - family income, 33, 37
 - households with children, 3, 5
 - living arrangements of children, 49–51
 - number of children in households, 7, 9, 11
 - population, 54, 58–59, 69–72, 83–99
 - public school students, 73–74
 - spending, 55, 63–65
- homeownership, college aspirations by status, 81

- households with children
 - by age of children, 8–9, 12–15
 - by age of householder, 10, 12, 14, 20–21
 - by generation, 16, 22
 - by household type, 4, 20–22
 - by number of children, 6–7, 10–11
 - by race and Hispanic origin, 3, 5, 11, 13, 15
 - historical trends, 2, 4
 - spending by, 39–47, 60–65
- income of families
 - by type, 31–32, 35–36
 - college aspirations of parents by, 78, 81
 - distribution of children by, 34, 38
 - historical trend, 31, 35
- labor force participation
 - of mothers, 24, 28
 - of parents, 23, 27
- language spoken at home, 56, 66, 75–76
- living arrangements
 - by race and Hispanic origin, 49–51
 - historical trend, 48, 50
- male-headed families
 - by age, 20–21
 - by generation, 22
 - children living in, 50–51
 - employment status, 23, 27
 - historical trend, 4
 - income of, 32, 35–36
- marital status, attitude toward parenthood
 - by, 82
- married-couple families
 - by age, 20–21
 - by generation, 22
 - children living in, 48–51
 - employment status, 23, 27
 - historical trend, 4
 - income of, 32, 35–36
 - spending of, 39–40, 42–47
- men
 - attitudes of new fathers, 77, 79–80
 - earnings, 31
 - time spent doing housework, 26
 - time spent with children, 25
- Millennial generation, 16, 22
- minority share of population, 53, 67
- mothers. See Women.
- population
 - by age, 57–59
 - by state, 69–70, 83–99
- preschoolers
 - employment status of mother, 28
 - employment status of parents, 27
 - households with, 8–9, 12–15
 - in day care, 24
 - spending of families with, 40, 42–47
- race and Hispanic origin. See individual race and Hispanic origin groups.
- religion, attitude toward parenthood by, 82
- region
 - college aspirations by, 81
 - day care use by, 29
- school-aged children
 - employment status of mother, 28
 - employment status of parents, 27
 - households with, 8–9, 12–15
 - in after-school care, 30
 - spending of families with, 40, 42–47
- schools, public
 - attitude toward, 9
 - minority share of, 68
 - race and Hispanic origin of students by state, 73–74
- single parents. See also Female-headed families and Male-headed families.
 - children living with, 48–51
 - spending of, 41–47
- Spanish spoken at home, 56, 66, 68, 75–76
- spending
 - by race and Hispanic origin, 55, 60–65
 - of married couples with children, 39–40, 42–47
 - of single parents, 41–47
- standard of living, attitude toward, 19
- state
 - population by, 67, 69–72, 83–99
 - public school students by, 68, 73–74
 - Spanish spoken at home by, 68, 75–76
- Swing generation, 16, 22
- teenagers, households with, 8–9, 12–15
- time parents spend with children, 25

white, non-Hispanic
age of children in households, 13, 15
attitude toward rewards of parenthood, 82
by state, 69–74, 83–99
children in day care, 29
college aspirations for children, 81
family income, 33, 37
households with children, 3, 5
living arrangements of children, 49, 51
number of children in households, 7, 11
population, 54, 58–59, 69–72, 83–99
public school students, 73–74

women
earnings, 31
labor force participation, 24, 28
time spent doing housework, 26
time spent with children, 25 working, attitude toward, 17